

AURA LEE

Sing the melody

Old English Song

Moderately

S. (T. II)
A. (T. I)

1. As the black-bird in the spring, 'Neath the wil-low tree,
2. On her cheek the rose was born; Mu-sic, when she spake.

Sat and piped, I heard him sing Of love-ly Au-ra Lee.
In her eyes the rays of morn With sud-den splen-dor break.

Au-ra Lee, Au-ra Lee, Maid of gold-en hair,

Sun-shine came a-long with thee, And swal-lows in the air.

* Tenor I part to be read an octave higher than shown
